Rich Sons To Take Up Defences

SHANGHAI, June 11.—General Chiang Kai Shek today ordered an unprecedented conscription of men for the army, regardless of family, wealth or influence.

Advice from Hankow said eventually the conscription would be made general throughout China on a basis of population of the provinces.

The general, it was said, had ordered it be applied with fairness to the sons of the wealthy as well as to the peasant and coolies who heretofore have borne the major burden.

The order, it was believed, was meant to end existing unfairness, especially evident in Shanghai, where hundreds of young bloods of wealth are carrying on business and are dancing at night.

The general's order was announced while rear guards were fighting desperately to hold Changchow, junction city 300 miles north of Hankow.

Wild Life Shot Only By Camera

Winsome Photographer Back Again to Seek Pictures in North

LORENE SQUIRE whose hobby is shooting ducks and other wild life with camera. Miss Squire finds particular enjoyment in the Canadian North.

Canada's Northland Has Again Tempted Fair Photographer

Hours of infinite patience in reedy blinds, blue and numb with cold, have been spent by Miss Lorene Squire, Harper, Kansas, just to get a photo-shot of a duck. She has struggled through mud with soaking feet, her clothes torn with cockleburrs, to capture a unique picture of wild life in pursuit of her hobby which has become her life's vocation.

Miss Squire arrived in Edmonton Saturday morning on route to Fort Chipewyan and Athabasca, and will leave for the northland in a Canadian Airways plane on Sunday morning.

The lure of the Mackenzie delta, the great paradise for the camera artist in search of wild life subjects, has again tempted Miss Squire from her Kansas home. "I have never seen a place which has appealed to my imagination like Chipewyan. The district is teeming with subjects for my ever-ready camera, and last year I got wonderful shots that was forced to come north again to complete my studies of wild life in the northland breeding grounds."

Miss Squire exhibited photos taken at Chipewyan last year at a conference at Baltimore in February, and in June, her pictures of wild life taken in the North West Territory will be exhibited at the Savoy-Place in New York.

Practically every outdoor magazine featured her work in the northland last year; many of them running a series of pictures over several issues.

This year, Miss Squire will concentrate on shots of wild swan and geese, snow geese and waterfowl.

King-Bennett Clash Rocks Ottawa House

Conservative Leader's Charges Of Political Corruption Meet Counter Attack With Claims Of Conspiracy

OTTAWA, June 11.—Charges and counter charges of political corruption rocked the House of Commons Friday and resulted in Prime Minister Mackenzie King denouncing Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett in the most scathing terms he has used in the house in many years.

Claims of the opposition leader that relief expenditures had been used for political purposes were repudiated by reading into the record a letter Mr. Mackenzie King had written to the Liberal cabinet implicating the former government in a "conspiracy" to influence the vote in three Manitoba constituencies in the 1935 election.

"In all the history of the Canadian parliament," the prime minister declared, "never has there been as disgraceful exposure of corruption and bribery."

Mr. Bennett leaped from his seat waving a copy of the Beauchamp report, a thick, blue-covered volume, and shouted: "Beauchamp!"

ALBERTA WILL AWAIT ACCORD ALL PROVINCES

Stay In Appeal To Privy Council Explained By Premier Aberhart

Appeal by Alberta to the Privy Council for a ruling as to whether the Dominion government has the right to disallow provincially passed legislation and whether the lieutenant governor has the right to reserve assent on bills passed by the legislature, was explained by the premier, premiering an opportunity of all provinces getting together to reach an accord on this vital matter, Premier William Aberhart announced on Saturday.

The other reason for staying the appeal, declared the premier, was the fact that in which disallowance was presented to and passed upon by the Supreme Court of Canada precludes the government from raising certain fundamental issues of rights of the people.

The premier was out of the city when announcement was made of the stay of appeal.

In his absence, Hon. Solon E. Lewis, provincial treasurer, declared the action was taken on the advice of counsel and that he will continue to wait.

CANADA - U. S. TRADE PACT IS NOW UNLIKELY

OTTAWA, June 11.—Indications are that the pact between the House of Commons set for next Thursday will not contain the provisions of the new United States trade pact.

It will be a statement of financial affairs of Canada for the fiscal year ending last March 31. While Mr. Dunning probably will be able to come nearer balancing the budget than his forecast in the last budget speech of a $50,000,000 deficit, it is expected there will still be a deficit of about $14,000,000.

YELLOWKNIFE DEVELOPMENT GETS IMPETUS

Another large scale Canadian development is being planned in the picture in the development of the gold mining areas now being opened up in the North West Territory.

Interest in the Yellowknife strike by Jack Hamilton, one of Canada's leading and most spectacular developers, is evidenced by his purchase of a large lot of claims in the Toronto mining magazine's intention to do extensive exploration development on these claims during the summer and fall.

Johnston, Toronto mining engineer, arrived in Edmonton Saturday morning en route to Yellowknife to take charge of these operations. He will leave by Canadian Air Service plane on Sunday.

Texas Tornado Leaves Path Of Death, Suffering

Lives of 13 Reported Snuffed Out in Wreckage of Village Caused by Night Terror of Winds

CLYDE, Texas, June 11.—A slowly-moving tornado killed 13 persons in this west Texas village of 700 last night, left several missing, injured at least two score, and shattered two-score houses.

Many volunteers searched the debris today, fearful more bodies lay in the wreckage. The wind split a freight train, tumbling box cars along the rails. At least one trainman was killed. Some reports said three were hauled dead from the wreckage.

Survivors told terrifying tales. J. R. Kauterling, whose wife was killed, said: "The house seemed to fall apart. A chimney fell all over me. I screamed. I was buried under a pile of lumber. Lord, but she was (killed) and I couldn't get her. I was holding her head when she died."

Ralph Shurt, newspaperman, saw the cloud while he was about eight miles from town. "It was as wild as it looked like a vast column of brown earth, sitting in a big brown bowl," he said.

The tornado could be seen for miles," he reported. "It came steadily but very slowly. Residents told me it seemed an eternity before it got. It was eight miles from town when I spotted it."

Short said the disturbance was accompanied by a violent electrical storm. Four were killed when the wind struck their cars. The two machines were tossed hundreds of yards from the bodies.

Just past the cemetery, about 100 feet south of the school building, where the storm was demolished, there was no trace of the storm. The school building was blown away and apparently blew itself out.

A violent electrical rain and hail storm accompanied the wind.

Britain Avoiding All War Despite Czech Troubles

Following an authoritative estimate of the European diplomatic situation, made by Webb Miller, Star British United Nations editor, during which he covered the Czechoslovak crisis.—Editor.

By WEBB MILLER
British United Press Cable to Edmonton Bulletin
LONDON, June 11.—The outstanding factor in the Czechoslovak minority crisis, and one which is likely to be the decisive element in its eventual settlement, is that Great Britain will not go to war in any circumstances which can be foreseen, to prevent the dismemberment of Czechoslovakia.

After a fortnight spent in London, Berlin and Paris, dealing with government officials, foreign dispatches, and two visits to the Czechoslovakian capital, Prague, the last year has reached a number of definite conclusions. Among them are the following:

Britain will not fight to prevent Germany's absorption of the Sudeten German minority area into the Nazi Reich. Britain will use every means in her power to bring about a settlement to avert a military clash in aid of last July.

Czechoslovakia is the event that Germany invades Czechoslovakia. Prime Minister Chamberlain's government would favor a plebiscite by which the Czechs would be allowed to remain in the Sudeten area.

$2,400,000 IS ALBERTA SHARE FEDERAL LOAN

On an equal division by the per capita basis, Alberta should receive from the liquidating of the $20,000,000 set up by the Dominion government for work on the $20,000,000 loan a total of $2,400,000, according to figures compiled on Saturday by A. A. Mackenzie, chairman of the Alberta Bureau of Relief and Public Welfare.

Everything equal, taking Alberta's population at 800,000, we should receive 20 per cent of the total amount, or $2,400,000," Mr. Mackenzie said.

Continuing, he said that as this province was a little "worse off" than the matter of relief for the provinces, it would not be amiss if the Dominion raised the amount to be allocated to Alberta.

For instance, he said, Ontario and Quebec have no unemployment of single unemployed. There is a lot of work there for single men, as was proved by the fact that when jobs were recently offered, there were none to fill them.

ALBERTA WILL MILITIAMEN AT FASCIST MEET AWAIT ACCORD ALL PROVINCES

statement would be issued later by the government.

Returning here on Thursday the premier declared he would have a statement later in regard to this matter.

DISALLOWANCE RIGHT
The question of right of the Dominion to disallow provincially passed legislation and the lieutenant-governor to reserve assent on bills passed in the house, were referred to the supreme court of Canada, together with three bills on which His Honor Lieutenant-Governor J. C. Bowen reserved assent at the September-October special session of the house.

The supreme court ruled against the province on the constitutionality of the bills and ruled the Dominion has the right of disallowance and that the lieutenant-governor has the right to reserve assent.

The province appealed and the case was to be argued before the privy council next month, on the validity of the three bills.

O. M. Biggar, K.C., of Ottawa, is counsel for the government, while Cyril Radcliffe was retained by counsel in England.

Below is Premier Abernethy's statement on the staying of appeal on the two points.

TWO REASONS

The government has decided to withdraw, for the present, its appeal to the privy council on the question of disallowance. It is doing this for two reasons:

In the first place it is advised by counsel that the form in which the question of disallowance was presented to and passed by the Supreme Court of Canada precluded the government from raising certain fundamental issues, and that to the rights of the people which can be elevated up by the present constitutional difficulties of our nation can be settled.

However, even of greater importance is the fact that the other provinces have not associated themselves with their own appeal. After giving most careful consideration to the matter we are convinced, therefore, that in the second place before any step is taken to obtain an irreversible ruling on the constitutional situation of the province and the Dominion, all provinces should be in agreement on the main issues.

AGREE ON ISSUES

Therefore, instead of proceeding with the disallowance appeal, as intended, the government of Alberta believes that the other provinces should come together in a purely inter-provincial conference to agree on the main issues in dispute. It should then be possible to go forward in unity, and along lines which will strengthen rather than weaken Confederation.

Though this will require some immediate delay, the government of Alberta is convinced that in the long run it will prove the more prudent course, both in the interests of national unity and in order to ensure a lasting and satisfactory settlement of the problems in question.

The government of Alberta hopes that this action, if it is taken, will result in a ready response from our sister provinces. To overcome the handicaps of delay, the government is requesting that the people of Canada recognize the justice and importance of Alberta's claim to be permitted to at least try a new economic order within the strict limits of her own boundaries, and in co-operation with any other province desiring to join with her. We are convinced that the majority of our people of our nation will support this Social Credit—and all we are asking is "Give Alberta time to change."

CROW - OWNER WILL FIGHT TO HIGHEST COURT

MONTEREAL, June 11.—Jack, pipe-smoking crow with a flair for the high art of pickpocketing, may be a nuisance to some residents of Rosemont, but to Thomas Jeffery, his owner, he's a much-maligned and rather remarkable bird—so remarkable Jeffery will "fight to the highest courts in the land" to keep him.

The harassed owner has received no less than eight summonses, none of them to the least flattering as to the conduct of the pet bird, which three years ago was a group of mischievous boys.

Senate Railway Probe Group To Resume Hearings
OTTAWA, June 11.—Following adjournment of 10 days the senate committee which is probing Canadian railway problems will resume its sittings Tuesday. Expectation is witnesses representing the Canadian National Railways will present evidence.

When the committee adjourned more than a week ago Senator Ross Dandurand declared the period of investigation would be occupied by C.N.R. experts in examining the mass of technical evidence presented by the company. Canadian Pacific Railway Company witnesses. This included the C.P.R. scheme of uniting management.

An unusual atmosphere was imparted to a meeting, being held in Toronto by Adrian Arcand and his Fascist cohorts of the Canadian Nationalist party, when five youthful members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, in uniform, appeared at the meeting in full uniform. The militiamen, composed of three sergeants, a corporal and a private, marched to the front of the meeting, gravely saluted Fascist Leader Arcand, then took seats in a front row and listened with great interest to the harangue of the Fascist leaders. The soldiers, shown below, objected to having their photographs taken, but the photographer caught them on the left unaware, when he snapped this picture. Speakers at the meeting are shown in left to right: Major John M. Scott, head of the Fascist "protective league"; Joseph Parr, Toronto executive of the party, and Leader Adrian Arcand, of Quebec.

ENGLAND SETS NEW MARK IN TEST CRICKET

after reaching 102. In yesterday's play, C. J. Barnett, Gloucestershire hit 126 and Yorkshire's Leonard Hutton 100.

McCormick opened the Aussie bowling. They were unimpressive. But the latter gave way to Stanley McCabe, touring vice-captain, who quickly had Compton in difficulty. The young Middlesex player was almost beaten when a fast in-bowler tipped the edge of his bat. At 88 Paynter narrowly missed being stumped off the same bowler.

PAKISTAN RECORD
Paynter smashed W. J. O'Reilly's first over for 14 to reach his 100 in three hours, simultaneously passing the fifth-wicket partnership record set up in 1904. In that year at Sydney Len Brand and R. E. Foster made 102 for England against Australia.

Compton brought his total to 102 when he was caught by C. L. Badcock at deep square leg off Fleetwood-Smith's bowling. He was at the wickets two hours and 15 minutes, hitting 15 fours in a characterless innings that made him the youngest Englishman ever to score a test century. He joined Hutton among notables who have hit the three-figure mark in a first appearance for England against Australia.

RAPID 46 RUNS
At this stage Leslie Ames, England's wicket-keeper, came in to partner Paynter. The Kent player knocked out a rapid 46 including six fours when he fell to a goodly bowler from Fleetwood-Smith. The sixth over was taken in 1904. In that year at Sydney Len Brand and R. E. Foster made 102 for England against Australia.

Paynter played practically flawless cricket, hitting six runs from straight drives and leg shots. His partnership with Compton yielded him runs in two long 20 minutes and when associated with Ames 90 went up in 35 minutes.

M. R. Wilson Is Elected School Trustee Again
Exclusive to Edmonton Bulletin
PEAVINE, June 11.—On a repeat election for school trustee of this district M. R. Wilson was elected by 25 to 20 over R. E. Dagdell-Haydon. The election held recently, ended in a one vote majority for Mr. Wilson.

A petition, alleging irregularities, was filed with the department and the election was dissolved and another ordered.

TWO BRITISH SHIPS STRUCK BY BOMBERS

100 Killed Or Wounded In Alicante In Earlier Raid
BARCELONA, June 11.—A new insurgent air raid on Alicante just before noon Friday resulted in 100 killed or wounded. It was officially announced last night.

In a second raid at 6 p.m. five planes again dropped bombs which severely damaged two British freighters, Thorpehaven and St. Wilfred.

The bombers then struck at the centre of the city, hitting the hotel Victoria, the hotel Sempere and the Commercial bank.

Rebel Forces Drive Forward

RENDIAVE, France, June 11.—Spanish insurgent forces cut the strategic highway between La Coruna and Castellan de la Plana in a two-hour battle Friday and drove toward the capital of Castellan province.

Nearly a dozen bombers were captured by insurgents who cut the road 10 miles northwest of Castellan, their immediate objective in the campaign against Valencia, key snapper of government Spain.

At midday, Lueña, 16 miles northwest of Castellan and an important lead and iron centre, was under fire of insurgent rifles.

RECORD IS SET FOR U. S. WHEAT

WASHINGTON, June 11.—A government forecast that the 1938 wheat harvest in the United States will be at least 1,000,000,000 bushels—the largest on record—gave impetus today to preparations for drastic federal control of next year's crop. Not since 1915, when farmers harvested 1,008,675,000 bushels has anything like such a yield been indicated.

All Notions of Election Discounted

OTTAWA, June 11.—The mass attack on R. B. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, in the house last night, particularly the speeches by Prime Minister Mackenzie King, Hon. Ian MacKenzie, defence minister, and Arthur Meighen (Lib. Party leader), conveyed the impression to some observers a general election was in the offing.

"Not a chance in the world," one active Liberal member said when it was suggested to him the proceedings had the earmarks of a fall election. "There will be no election this fall unless something very unexpected happens."

PADLOCK, CHAIN, LOCK ON DOOR OF ART GALLERY

VANCOUVER, June 11.—A heavy chain and padlock held shut the iron grill door of Vancouver's civic art gallery today, leaving the two-door as only exit for more than 200 unemployed who have occupied the building since May 26.

Police allowed the chain and padlock yesterday after two police officers who visited the gallery, were told by the men that only one could enter.

Police Chief W. W. Kieley said the front door had previously been controlled by the unemployed. Now the officers on watch had keys and would be in charge.

On May 26 about 1,000 unemployed marched into the art gallery, civic post office and Hotel Georgia in a demonstration. Their leaders said was planned to bring their plight to attention of provincial and federal authorities.

Fifty hundred men are still in the post office. The Hotel Georgia group evacuated May 21 when paid $500 by the city to do so.

Thirty-six members from a military academy in Chicago recently made a 3,000-mile aerial tour of the United States' military spots of interest.

PRECAUTIONS FOR ELECTION SUNDAY TAKEN

Member Of Army General Staff Outlines Nation's Defences
By WADE WERNER
Associated Press Foreign Staff
PRAGA, Czechoslovakia, June 11.—Major Rudolf Broz of the army general staff assured the nation Friday that Czechoslovakia bristles with machine-gun nests awaiting any invader.

He gave a broad outline of Czechoslovakia's defences in a lecture, as the government prepared large-scale precautions against disaster Sunday in the third and last of a series of municipal elections.

A new phase of disaster in the nation's largest minority groups developed when Sudeten German (Nazi) members of parliament raised "constitutional, political and economic" objections to a proposed public collection, and a private attempt to help finance National defences.

INTO INTERIOR
Heavy fortifications really are a chain of machine-gun nests along our border," Major Broz said in his forecast.

"This extends, however, far into the interior. If the enemy succeeds in breaking through the first ring of fortifications he would immediately strike the next line."

"In such fighting the enemy would suffer heavy losses and his offensive would degenerate into numerous individual actions."

The actual fortifications are supplemented by natural barriers, which are found on our borders. The nation's defences dictate the enemy the path he must follow in entering our country."

A Day in Canadian History

BY FRED WILLIAMS

Fifty years ago today (June 11, 1868) Lord Stanley of Preston was appointed as governor-general at Quebec. He remained in the post until 1873 when he was succeeded by the Earl of Aberdeen. His term of office was the first in which the English language was the official language in Canadian history when little remarkable happened, but in which there was a change of power in the cabinet for the future notably the beginning of the struggle over the abolition of the Confederation Act and the teaching of the French language in Manitoba. The sequel to which was the Manitoba Question.

House of Commons, the dinner was held in the Russell House and a party of 100 guests was present. I think the president of the House was P. Gorman, then editor of the Free Press.

After his return to England, Lord Stanley became the Earl of Derby and was for many years one of the most influential members of the British aristocracy. He was a good friend of the author of Myself in many ways and he left Ottawa in 1896 after 28 years in the city.

It is reported that in Lough Haven, Pembrokeshire, Wales, he was a resident. And from its newly constructed airport, one-third of all the passengers who leave for the United States get their first flight

Major and Minor Notes

By John Oliver

Of major significance is the announcement on Saturday, of the amalgamation of the Elmer Ladies Chorus and the Edmonton Ladies Chorus, under the leadership of W. J. Hendra. In future the amalgamated chorus will be known as the Edmonton-Elmer Ladies Chorus. Reason for the fusion was the manifold activities of Mr. Hendra. At the annual meeting held recently, Mrs. George Gunn was elected president. Other officers elected were: Vice-president, Mrs. Wagner; treasurer, K. Robinson; librarian, Oliver; motion picture executive, Mrs. Eric Wright and A. Fiedler; Helen McGee was elected accompanist, with Edith MacArthur as assistant accompanist. First rehearsal of the next season, will be held on September 6.

On Sunday, from 3 a.m. until 10 p.m. Vernon W. Barford, organist and choralmaster at All Saints' Pro-Cathedral, will give an organ recital at Convocation Hall, University of Alberta, in connection with the Young Firm Festival week, in progress at the U. of A. The public is invited. Mr. Barford, dean of Edmonton's musicians, has selected a program suitable both to Sunday and to the occasion which prompts the recital.

Jeanie Mercer, pianist, is appearing in recital at Heintzman Hall, on Wednesday, June 15, at 8:30 p.m. In her first number, the first movement of the Grieg Concerto in A Minor, opus 10, she will be assisted by Avenir Nisoff.

Miss Mercer studied for three years at the Toronto Conservatory of Music and under Margaret Brown, received her A.T.C.M. in 1935. This will be her fourth consecutive annual recital, she has played in various recitals at the Toronto Conservatory and in the private studio of Mona Bates. Last year she made her debut in this city at the Masonic Temple.

Pupils of Miss Lewis were heard in recital on Friday evening at the Masonic Temple. The program of songs and duets was heard by a large audience of parents and friends. Mrs. H. Cuthbert was the guest artist. Pupils taking part were: Muriel Davis, Ellen Logan, Edith Starr, Evelyn Ritchie, Theodore Haddad, Scott Thomas-Leach, Dorothy Carter, Joan Neal, Constance Webster, Doreen Ockenden, Lucy Palmer.

Emily Swan, Jean Clark, Christina Swan, Joyce Russell, Eileen Huffman, Edith Bijou, Herbert Ellis, Gordon Greenwood, Sydney Carter, Ted Zimmerman, Bob Bijou and Gordon Ockenden.

At the June meeting of the Piano Class Teachers Association, the following officers were elected for the coming year: Hon. president, J. Norman Eagleson; president, Audrey McKinley; vice-president, Beatrice Crawford; secretary treasurer, Mrs. A. G. Wright; executive committee, Mrs. M. L. Wright, Mrs. D. Aitch, Mrs. G. Baker, Helen Barbour, A. Michaels.

This year the piano class teachers staged one of their popular demonstrations in McKat Avenue school, when about 100 pupils took part in theoretical work and piano solo, duet, ensemble and rhythm band work. Three piano class rhythm bands won events at the recent music festival held here, namely Oliver, Westmount and Queen's Avenue schools. The association held several social affairs during the year.

The Junior Harmony Club of the National Institute of Music, held its annual picnic at Victoria Park on June 8, with more than 100 attending. Games were played and races run, with prizes being presented by Roy Le Roy Olson. Refreshments were served by a committee of Mesdames Berg, Smart, Bentley, Rammie, Miss Liebrook, Miss Maduck and others.

The final practice of the season of the Edmonton Civic Opera Society, now preparing Martha for next season's production, will be held next week. The Society will adjourn for the summer and in the fall, Mrs. J. B. Carmichael will call her forces together early to complete preparations for presentation of Flotow's charming opera.

According To Culbertson

By ELY CULBERTSON
When a defender finds himself in the fortunate position of holding the high trump, he should, in 90 out of 100 cases, get rid of it as soon as he can. This is a winning play. From the way many defenders hold on to said high trump, one might be led to believe that they hoped it would grow into two tricks. Actually a large proportion of throw-in plays become possible only because the defender has hugged a high trump to his bosom. Witness today's hand:
North dealer.
Both sides vulnerable.

West, looking around for a good lead, could find nothing more satisfactory than the devious diamond. Dummy played low. East laid likewise and declarer's blank was won. With no clearly defined plan in mind, but merely with the general idea of getting by, opponents to lead, declarer cashed the heart ace and exited with a heart. West ducked. East won with the nine, and cashed the king. Declarer put up the jack. West covered, and Dummy's ace was returned. East's dummy now was out of entries. East properly shift his honor. Declarer captured the jack with the king, cashed the ace, cashed the queen. East's ace was returned. East won with the queen and, at this point, of course, had "no end" and "no plan." What purpose thought he could fill by holding on to it more than 10 cards, but held on to it he did. He laid down the diamond king which, of course, was quite "redneck soup" for declarer, who ruffed, and promptly threw East back on lead with the aforesaid nine of spades. East then was under the pleasant necessity of returning a diamond from the 14 up to dummy's Q-10, thereby providing declarer to discard his club loser.

Perhaps East was pleased at having defeated the contract 300 points, but his partner, who had the other 300 points that had been "complimentary" to him, was not. Write your bridge troubles and problems to Ely Culbertson, care of this paper, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

MAFIA BATTERS BAIRAM BEY, KLEIN LOSES

Kusek's Injured Losing To Cummings

By JACK BEAR

HAIR matted with blood from a deep head cut suffered early in the bout, defeated, backed up against the ropes, but as willing to fight to the end as any wary-hardier, Klem Kusek emerged from a sensational wrestling career, a great and loudly applauded hero.

Tossed for two falls after his head injury, Kusek lost his grudge battle against Bob "Bad Boy" Cummings in the main event of Mike Cutcher's card at the Empire theatre last night. Kusek's defeat was the climax to a card which is absolutely impossible to describe with such light adjectives as thrilling and spectacular.

It was a bout that had an almost straight fall triumph over Nick Harris, a maddened fan from Barrie, Ontario, and his toe to the crowd, before the Turk took any idea of the man's purpose, the spectator took a punch at the Turk's close-cropped dome.

The barroom brawler's blow caught the Turk square on the forehead, the blow lifted the Turk off the stage and into the orchestra pit, a drop of about five feet. Only the sturdy arms of ring-keepers kept the Turk off the barroom brawler, but the fan's first spectator was popular. As he returned to his seat he was cheered, but his hand was thoroughly shaken, and for the fact he weighed in the vicinity of 240 pounds, the crowd might have carried him to his shoulders.

As Cummings and Cummings, accompanied by Referee Louis Lavioie, entered the ring, it was a signal heralding the battle. Only a minute elapsed before Cummings gave the referee a little derelict and had the fans up on their feet.

MOSQUITOES

ARE MAN'S WORST ENEMIES AMONG THE INSECTS / AS CARRIERS OF YELLOW FEVER, THEY SPREAD DEATH THROUGHOUT THE TROPICS FOR CENTURIES BEFORE SCIENCE CAME TO THE RESCUE / TODAY, THE YELLOW FEVER FLAG FLIES NO MORE FROM THE MASTS OF QUARANTINED SHIPS.

BUT INHABITANTS OF EVERY LAND CONTINUE TO BE ANNOYED BY THESE BLOOD-SUCKING PESTS / THE HIGH-PITCHED HUM OF THEIR WINGS IS ONE OF THE MOST DISTRACTING OF ALL THE SOUNDS KNOWN TO MAN.

ONE NEED NOT FEAR THE MALE, HOWEVER, FOR HE IS A VEGETARIAN, AND LIVES ON A DIET OF JUICES SUCKED FROM PLANTS AND FRUITS.

THE EGGS OF MOSQUITOES FLOAT ABOUT IN RAFT-LIKE BUNDLES / THE LARVAE, OR WRIGGLERS, BREATHE THROUGH SMALL TUBES PROJECTING FROM THEIR ABDOMENS, WHICH THEY THRUST THROUGH THE SURFACE FILM.

OIL, POURED ON THE WATER, SHUTS OFF THEIR AIR SUPPLY, AND DEATH ENSUES.
